From the Chair

Our Boccia competition calendar is now complete for the year but already our 2024 calendar is looking exciting, with states planning their annual competitions and small clubs discussing with BA how they might run their own local event. While the thought of running a small competition can be a bit daunting it but can be very rewarding and fun for your athletes, and BA can help. Checkout the information on our website to help you at All Event Resources

I would like to thank Sporting Wheelies who hosted the recent Nationals in Brisbane. They put on a great event. My thanks also to the Volunteers and Referees and all the supporters who came with our athletes and helped where needed. Boccia couldn't run without you.

Best wishes for a wonderful Christmas break and I will see you at a court somewhere!

May your balls run true,

Richard Boele

Performance Pathway Update

Boccia Australia's first National Camp was held at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra in September. Eight of our emerging and developing athletes along with our podium athletes Dan Michel, Ash Maddern and Jamieson Leeson, along with Jamieson's new ramp operator Jasmine Haydon. (Welcome Jasmine to the Boccia family). We had a mixture of updates from the team at the AIS, learning about categorisation and on court time so that our pathway athletes have the information and education about what it takes to go from PLAYER TO ATHLETE. And start to build our Australian Team culture as we aim for a maximum number of eligible athletes competing on the world stage at the Brisbane 2032 Paralympic Games.

In a major milestone for Australian sport, the country's peak Olympic, Paralympic and Commonwealth Games sporting organisations have joined forces to launch a national strategy aimed at building success towards Brisbane 2032 and beyond. Bringing their vision of success immediately to life, sporting leaders took a pledge to 'Win Well' – a foundation of the strategy and a new national commitment to balancing ambitious sporting goals with cultures that are safe, fair and supportive. Check out our own Dylan Schwarz's contribution to WIN WELL.

We look forward to supporting all our emerging and developing athletes on their Boccia journey. For more information on the Performance Pathway check out the document on the Boccia Website.

Boccia World Cup – Fortaleza BRAZIL, September 2023

Fortaleza was a return to World Cup level for JP having last competed at a World Cup event in 2017. He showed steady form with a match win in the pools and a close match against top 10 player from Brazil's, Eliseu Dos Santos 6-5. Spencer Cotie/Tom Lunn – placed 11th
JP La Fontaine – placed 12th

After 37 hours of travel the BC3 athletes landed in the seaside town of Povoá to contest the final World Cup event for 2023. It was an incredibly tough field for both the BC3's with all but one of the top ten athletes contesting the female competition and seven out of the top ten for the male competition. Both Dan and Jamieson progressed out of their pools but could not find the form to progress from the quarter finals.

Boccia World Cup – Povoá, PORTUGAL, October 2023

Dan Michel/Ash Maddern – placed 6th
Jam Leeson/Amanda Lesson – placed 6th
BC3 Pairs – finished 5th

The BC3 Pairs extended their undefeated run to 21 matches until meeting an almost flawless performance from Brazil in the final pool match sending the reigning world champions into a knockout match against South Korea. Always a challenge against Howon Jeong and Sunhee Kang with Dan and Jam not able to get the better of them bringing their competition to an end.

What's next for our HP team? The 2023 BisFed Asia and Oceania Regional Championships will be held on Hong Kong from 3-12 December. Up to date schedule and results will be available on the World Boccia Website including a link to a live stream. www.worldboccia.com

We wish the team the best of luck, particularly for the BC3 Pairs as this is their direct Paralympic Games qualifier with the gold medallists across each class earning themselves a slot to the Games next year in Paris.

Classification

National Classification was completed at BANT this year. We had 2 panels and classified 12 athletes. Thanks to our volunteer classifiers for making themselves available. The master list will be updated by the end of November.
